Legend:

Legl Four countries have legislation that bans investments in cluster munition producers: Belgium, Ireland, Luxembourg and New Zealand.

Parl The Netherlands and Switzerland have adopted parliamentary motions to develop legislation prohibiting investment in cluster munition producers. Parliamentary discussions are on-going in Germany, Italy and Norway.

Min Two countries have ministerial statements on investments: France and the United Kingdom.

Stmt Fourteen countries have said in public statements (delivered at a conference or by letter) that they consider investment in cluster munition producers to be prohibited under the Convention on Cluster Munitions: Australia, Cameroon, Colombia, Croatia, Guatemala, The Holy See, Hungary, Lebanon, Madagascar, Malawi, Malta, Mexico, Rwanda and Zambia.

The Cluster Munition Coalition's Stop Explosive Investments campaign calls on governments to pass comprehensive national legislation that includes a ban on investments in cluster munition producers and calls on banks and other financial institutions to immediately disinvest from cluster munition producers and implement comprehensive policies banning investment in these weapons.
